

Today, we met to complete the powerpoint. As we were completing the slides, we noticed an issue with our ERD diagram and fixed it. We also decided to change the UML Diagram outline and words to be white to contrast our dark background. Tomorrow or the day after, we will meet again to run our presentation to make sure we fully understand it.